

LIVE PAMPA

THE PROPOSAL

A unique visit to San Antonio de Areco, the cradle of Argentinian Tradition.

We will live an unforgettable experience at the estancia La Porteña, a place Of more than 180 years of age that still keeps its Argentinean Creole Architectonical style intact.

We will spend a country day full of flokllore and tradition; reliving the long seasons That the famous writer Ricardo Güiraldes, author of the internationally-acclaimed novel "Don Segundo Sombra", spent in the estancia finding inspiration to write his best pages.

We will travel in time enjoying of creole exhibitions af customs, abilities and skills...

ROAD MAP

1 San Antonio de Areco

Former mansions, old-cornered streets and monuments wit fos us in a town with much history to discover.

4 The Gaucho's life and activities

We will spend a day of unforgettable field, full of floklorean tradition. Reception with cheeses, pies and Argentinean wines. Asado and later mateada, accompanied of cupcakes and a guitar show

2 Ricardo Güiraldes Museum

The architechtonical style of The building alludes to a former 18th century old country house, where the spirit of the gaucho tradition still remains. We will taste a variety of

5 We will travel to another century...

We will enjoy the estancia with a demonstration of uses and costumes, cavalcades, walks in carriages, sports and polo lessons.

3 Estancia La Porteña Cultural Historical Monumental

The country house was built in the 19th Century and its surrounded by an impressive garden designed by the French architect Charles Thays. The ranch is considered one of the most attractive and traditional in the country due to its unique Argentinean Creole stvle.

GENERAL RULES

Departure time:
Everyday at 9.00 hs.

The service includes:
A catering service during the tour.
Personalized service with two bilingual guides.
Argentinean barbecue at estancia La Porteña.
A mate as tradicional souvenir for each passenger.

Duration:
8.30 hs.

